

Towards a Sustainable European Energy Policy

Venue: German House, 34 Belgrave Square, SW1X 8DZ London

Wednesday, 14th of February 2007

- 09.30 Words of Welcome
Hans-Henning Blomeyer-Bartenstein, Chargé d' Affaires, German Embassy
- 09:45 The British energy policy in the future and its implications for a future European Energy policy: Resources, targets and the dimension of climate protection
Peter Cameron, Professor in International Energy Law and Policy, University of Dundee
- Commentary: The European Dimension of an integrated energy and climate approach
Dieter Helm, Professor of Energy Policy, University of Oxford
- Discussion
- 11.00 The German perspective on a sustainable European Energy and Climate policy
Rolf Hempelmann, MdB, Speaker for Energy questions in the SPD Parliamentary Group, Berlin
- Commentary
Friedemann Müller, Nonresident Senior Fellow, Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik
- Discussion
- Chair:
Ernst Hillebrand (Friedrich Ebert Foundation) / Martin Kremer (German Embassy)
- 13.30 Lunch (provided)